

Dana Štolbová

Was born in Prague. She has been professionally engaged in sculpture and artistic ceramics since year 1984 until 2012.

Sphere of Creation

Statues, interior sculpture, jewellery

Applied Techniques and Materials

Grog, ferro concrete, baked clay, Seger green, metal, lustre, gold, marble, polychromes

Qualification

She got her degrees at Charles University, the faculty of General Medicine where she acquired extended knowledge of anatomy and physiology and received a scientific degree in genetics. She attended a series of certified trainings organised by the European Union, a part of which was i.a. human nonverbal communication, and a lot of psychological courses in verbal and nonverbal communication. She practised as a pedagogue in UDPM. She has qualification in the field of pottery and ceramics; she participated in numerous ceramic symposia of artists-pedagogues and ceramic workshops. She frequented the sculpture-ceramic workshop of M. Adamcová in years 1984 - 1989.

Participation in Exhibitions

Participation in Exhibition of artists-pedagogues symposia, participation in several exhibition in Czech Republic. Representative exhibition of the Artists Association Berlin – Germany, Fair of fine arts, Artcentre event, Munich – Germany, individual exhibitions. Cooperation with art studios of interior and architectonic design: e.g. Oresta Prague.

Representation in Private Collections

Czech Republic, Denmark, USA, Japan, Germany, Austria.

www.stolbova.cz